Application Guideline for "Joint Supervision Single Master Degree Program"

Academic year 2013-14

AUN-KU Student Mobility Program toward Human Security Developmen

The AUN-KU* Student Mobility Program toward Human Security Development will launch a new Master's Program, the "Joint Supervision Single Master Degree Program," covering the fields related to "Food and Water Resources," "Environment and Energy," and "Public Health."

The Student Mobility Program invites applications for its first batch from students of AUN member universities (listed below).

*AUN = ASEAN University Network; KU = Kyoto University

1. What is the "Joint Supervision Single Master Degree Program"?

Students from the 25 AUN member universities listed below will conduct research and complete a thesis under the joint supervision of professors from their home university and KU. The main supervisor from the home university and the co-supervisor from KU will discuss and agree on a learning schedule. Students will be required to move to Japan to conduct their research work at KU for a specific duration, based on a schedule. It is assumed that students will move to Japan at the beginning of their second academic year, and the basic duration of their stay at KU will be six months.

Students will have to submit their theses to their respective home universities, which will confer the degree. The co-supervisor may be a member of the thesis examination committee.

2. Research fields and corresponding departments at KU

The fields of studies in this program are "Food and Water Resources," "Environment and Energy," and "Public Health." Students participating in this program will study in either Graduate School of Agriculture, Graduate School of Energy Science, , School of Public Health in Graduate School of Medicine, Graduate School of Asian and African Area Studies, Institute of Advanced Energy, or Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University.

3. Application and Admission

(1) Requirements for Admission

Applicants will need to comply with the following:

- (a) The student must be registered with one of the 25 AUN member universities listed below
- (b) The student should have passed a regular entrance examination at a home university
- (c) The student must have a TOEFL iBT 80 or equivalent scores in IELTS
